ACTIVITIES

Are you ready to wake up each morning and feel inspired? We don't measure the fullness of life here by the fullness of your social calendar. But it's a good place to start. From fitness first options like tai chi or our everyday signature program, B-Fit, to creative pursuits like ballroom dancing classes and book clubs, our residents are never far from a good time. They're also never far from a good person to share it with, as our hallways are full of interesting people, just like you, who are

DINING

Make a light meal at home or head down to the dining room and enjoy a meal that's like going out with friends to eat at your favorite restaurant (our dining room!) every day, minus the "going out" part. Our menus are all about you and may include your menu requests, your favorite recipes and your feedback. Our culinary team creates healthy and delicious meals with seasonal menus based on fresh local ingredients when possible.
