BROOKDALE SENIOR LIVING

ACTIVITIES

With calendars for each level of care, residents have endless opportunities to savor the golden years. As an assisted living resident, join your neighbors for a morning devotional service that nourishes your soul or an exercise class to strengthen your body and increase your flexibility. Whether our adult home memory care residents are getting active with chair yoga or relaxing with music and tea, they'll feel a deep sense of purpose, meaning and belonging each and every day.

DINING

At Brookdale Clinton, our dining team is passionate about creating memorable dining experiences. As an assisted living resident, you'll enjoy healthy, delicious restaurant-style meals with friends in our elegant dining room. Our adult home memory care residents enjoy a dining program that offers healthy, dementia-friendly menu choices and creates a sense of belonging. We also keep mealtimes very routine to help alleviate confusion or added stress.
