ACTIVITIES

You will likely have a lot in common with your fellow neighbors. Perhaps you will find kindred spirits as you participate in walking clubs and Bible studies, or while playing competitive rounds of cards and when going on an excursion to places like the Riverbanks Zoo, the South Carolina Confederate Relic Room and Military Museum, or the Columbia Museum of Art. No matter how you spend your time, or who you spend it with, we have a feeling this could very well be your greatest adventure yet.

DINING

At Brookdale Columbia, you can laugh with friends over a delicious meal in our restaurant-style dining room. If you have special dietary requests, we may have an option for you. Our menus change daily and are all about you. We try to include your menu requests, feedback and favorite recipes. Enjoy a dining program that's like going to eat at your favorite restaurant every day, minus the "going out" part. Best of all, you can enjoy a meal with good friends.
