ACTIVITIES

Do you want to play bingo or go out to lunch with friends? Or both? Maybe you've always wanted to try yoga. Now you can. How about some game time with dominoes, cards or bingo in our game room? If you're passionate about gardening, you can work in our courtyard gardens. You can be as involved as much or as little as you choose.

DINING

Cook a light meal in your apartment or head down to our dining room where our menus are all about you and sometimes feature your suggestions, your feedback and even your own family recipes. You can also join a menu chat to discuss your suggestions and ideas with the chef. And don't forget you can book our private dining room for special celebrations with friends and families.
