ACTIVITIES

All of the activities on our events calendar are resident-driven, from birthday parties and book reviews to karaoke and sunset socials. Just because your family member has transitioned into a memory care community doesn't mean they should press pause on life. They will enjoy taking scenic drives through the community, watching their favorite classic films, dining at local restaurants, and taking excursions to places like the Archibald Smith Plantation Home and Bulloch Hall.

DINING

To reduce the amount of confusion or stress in the lives of our seniors, we keep mealtimes very routine. Everyone sits down for meals at the same time and at the same table every day. Food is served on colorful plates and tablecloths to help your loved one more easily distinguish their food. They will also receive snacks between meals to make sure they are eating a healthy and well-balanced diet each day.
