ACTIVITIES

Perhaps you want to spend a slow morning sipping coffee from the peace and quiet of the courtyard. Or maybe you want to join a vibrant and active fitness class to jumpstart your day. Many of our residents enjoy everything from live music performances and game clubs to painting classes and comedy nights. No matter what you decide to do with your time, you are never far from good times—and even better company.

DINING

Do you have dietary requests like low sodium or diabetic-friendly dishes? Our culinary team may have an option for you. Our menus change daily and may include your menu requests, your favorite recipes, and your feedback. You can enjoy a dining program that is like going out with friends to eat at your favorite restaurant every day, minus the “going out” part. Best of all, you won’t have to worry about cleaning another dish again.
