Our calendars are tailored to fit different needs and interests, so there's something for everyone. From creative pursuits like crafting groups to mental challenges like trivia nights to just-for-fun activities like bingo, you'll have plenty of ways to connect with friends and have fun. Our independent living residents have options like spiritual meditation and movie matinees, and our assisted living residents can enjoy happy hour gatherings, devotional services and bean bag toss.

DINING

You can enjoy the convenience of restaurant-style meals served each day. Our culinary team is passionate about creating healthy and delicious menu options so you can sit back and enjoy the conversation at your table. Residents are involved in setting the menus and meeting with our culinary team for weekly menu chats. And when possible, we can add in your requests or favorite family recipes. And if you have a special dietary request, we may have an option for you.
