ACTIVITIES

Whether you're attending an art class, playing mahjong, listening to live music or getting some fresh air in our beautiful garden courtyard, you're surrounded by a community of interesting people who are living life well. Our full activities calendar changes each day, so there's always something interesting to do. When you feel like venturing off-campus, you're near world-famous attractions such as Chinatown, Fisherman's Wharf, the cable car system, and world-class entertainment.

DINING

You'll love our restaurant-style dining with such flavorful entrees as sauteed pork medallions with red peppers, Italian baked salmon and beef fajitas. Our menus may include your menu requests, favorite recipes, and your feedback. We create dining experiences with healthy, delicious meals with seasonal ingredients. Do you have special dietary requests like low sodium or diabetic-friendly dishes? Our culinary team strives to create menu options to meet different needs.
